

For immediate release

For more information, contact:
Jack Coleman, 503-552-5000
jcoleman@gardcommunications.com

Acumentra Health Names New Director of Financial Services

Portland, Ore. — January 17, 2012 — Acumentra Health is pleased to announce the appointment of Neidra Evans, CMA, as director of financial services. She succeeds Tim Dragila, CPA, who retired from Acumentra Health after serving as the company's director of financial services for nearly 19 years.

Ms. Evans has worked with Acumentra Health since 2009, most recently as controller. Before joining the company, she worked as an accountant with the Chopra Center for Wellbeing in Carlsbad, CA. She holds BS degrees in accounting and business administration, specializing in finance, from Central Washington University.

Acumentra Health, a healthcare quality consulting firm, is the federally designated Medicare Quality Improvement Organization for Oregon and the Medicaid External Quality Review Organization for Oregon and Washington.

###